Surf the Wild Coast

The Wild Coast—a haven of closely placed surf spots, rocky cliffs, peeling point breaks, laid back beach breaks and natural reef. Based in Chintsa, on the Southern stretch of the Wild Coast's 320km's of untouched coastline with the warm Indian Ocean lapping at our shores, this surf experience boasts of no less than 26 surf spots within the area. If one isn't working another is sure to be!

Aimed at beginner to intermediate surfers, this experience encompasses all the right elements to get you up and riding out at the backline whilst experiencing the lively, vibey and welcoming surf community in South Africa.

What it's all about!

Surf Surf Surf!

Up early in the mornings to make the most of our local surf; some mornings will be based in Chintsa and others will explore other local spots depending on weather conditions and surfers' experience and confidence level. Each week includes 8 hours of one-on-one or group surf instruction from our qualified and experienced surf instructor. The other mornings are intended for practice and perfecting your technique.

Surf Development

Get involved with the UNSTRESSED SURF SCHOOL; established in 2010 by local NPO Friends of Chintsa. This development surf school sees local kids from the Chintsa village accessing surf lessons, ocean awareness training, taking part in beach clean ups and generally being a part of the local surf community. Surfers on Surf the Wild Coast will spend a minimum of two afternoons and one weekend day per week, working with the UNSTRESSED kids helping with surf lessons, running warm ups and team building games and even a spot of yoga on the beach!

Surf Jeffreys Bay

Experience the world renowned waves of JBay and one of the longest rides in South Africa! Travel the 4 hours from Chintsa to JBay where surfers will be welcomed into vibey Island Vibe Backpackers—the base for this fun weekend away. With 23 surf spots from Seal Point via Supertubes all the way to Albatross—all within walking distance of each other— you can chase waves all day long or enjoy a morning watching the pro's at the gnarliest of spots!
